

Seventeen, AAA and DOT logos come on the screen.

National Two-Second Turnoff Day Video Challenge

Ann: Opening your college acceptance letter!

Ray: Shaking hands

Bob: Fastening your seatbelt

Ann: Hugging your mom

Bob: Buying a discounted movie ticket

Ray: It only takes two seconds to do each of these things.

Bob: But it also only takes two seconds to get into a crash when you take your eyes off the road to check (or send!) a text.

Ray: Instead, you can take two seconds to turn off your phone before you get into the car, so that crash never happens.

Ann: Seventeen's National Two-Second Turn off Day is on September 17th and we're asking for your help to spread the message.

Bob: AAA, Seventeen, and the DOT are teaming up to issue an anti-distracted driving "Viral Video Challenge" to help put an end the thousands of distracted driving crashes involving teen drivers each year.

Ann: Ok, here's how it works: log on to Seventeen.com/twosecond and upload your best distracted driving video and send along to all your friends to make sure you get the most viral video plays.

Ray: We'll feature the winning video at DOT's National Distracted Driving Summit this September, as well as on our official website, distraction.gov.

Ann: And on seventeen.com

Bob: And AAAexchange.com. Plus, AAA and Discover are sponsoring a $2,000 prize!

Ray: By uploading your creative ideas, you can help us send the right message...

Ann: Go to seventeen.com/twosecond for all the rules and don't forget to join us on September 17 for National Two-Second Turnoff Day. Two Seconds!

Logos come on the screen